What the Tuition Covers

The BRIDGE tuition provides fellows with:

- Expert-led training sessions on nonprofit governance, leadership skills, and advocacy.
- Mentorship and coaching from experienced professionals.

- Comprehensive printed and digital materials, workbooks, and resources.
- Access to exclusive Los Cien events and networking opportunities.
- A powerful network of local leaders, advocates, and decision-makers.
- A certificate of completion recognizing fellows' leadership training.
- Catering and venue fees for each session.

Why do we use a sliding scale?

Our sliding scale reflects Los Cien's commitment to making leadership training accessible across all sectors. By aligning tuition with organizational capacity, we ensure BRIDGE remains inclusive, sustainable, and empowers diverse leaders to step into decision-making roles across Sonoma County and beyond.

Scholarships Available

At Los Cien, we believe cost should never be a barrier to participation in the BRIDGE Program. We are committed to ensuring that everyone, regardless of financial circumstances, has the opportunity to develop their leadership skills.

Once admitted into the program, scholarships are available for qualified individuals and organizations who demonstrate need. Please contact Magali Telles at magali@loscien.org to learn more about how to apply for financial assistance.
